

SAINTS HAND KEIOS PACKAGE OF WHITEWASH

BARNEY JOY PITCHES SWELL GAME—SUGASE IS BATTED OUT OF BOX IN THE FOURTH INNING.

Nothing could please the local ball fans more, especially the backers of the St. Louis College Alumni team, more than what that team did to the Keio nine on the Athletic Park diamond yesterday afternoon before a record-breaking crowd, when the home team gave the university nine a dose of whitewash, something that has not been applied to the Nipponese since they played the Syracuse team in the States, when that aggregation triumphed the Japanese 13-0.

The Saints can boast of not only winning the game, but being the third team to shut them out, allowing each one to have an egg for himself to carry off as a souvenir.

It was a great day of rejoicing for the Honolulu fans, in spite of its being Sunday. There was music in the air from the beginning of the first inning till the game ended.

Manager Gleason was a happy man when Barney Joy finished up the last better of the Keio nine by sending him to the bench by the strike-out rule.

The St. Louis team is to be congratulated for the trick is turned on the visitors, and special praise should be given Joy, who pitched the game of his life. Before he was through with the Keios he had handed out eleven passes to the bench via the strike-out route.

Long before the game started the park was packed with people eager to see the game, and there were many hundreds of Japanese fans who had come up from the country for the day, expecting to see their countrymen carry off the honors.

On the Kwa side of the grandstand was a bunch of St. Louis Alumni boys—on hand to give the college team a welcome greeting as it went out onto the field. The boys kept the music going right along with their bells and rockets while Captain Briggs's band was having an intermission. Patsy Welsh and G. Clark were the live wires in this crowd.

On the Kwa bleachers the Japanese crowd tried for all its worth to rattle Barney, but Captain Bruns was on the watch and kept Joy cool throughout the game.

It was a good thing that Soares and Bruns were on the alert all the time, as Barney was ready to go off many a time during the day, and it was the actions of these two players which kept him down.

Joy started in by walking the first man, Sasaki, but this only showed that he had not warmed up yet. From that time he showed that he was in perfect form, and the Nipponese did very little damage to his curves, managing to get only four hits off him.

In the second the Saints scored one. Franco was out pitcher to first, Sumner was out on a pop fly to first; Joy was given free transportation to first and stole second. "Chilly" came up and selected a nice one, which he nailed for a two-bagger, bringing Joy home. Markham was out on a fly to center. Three outs. One run.

In the third Soares opened the session with a safe hit to short. En Sue was given a pass to first. Bushnell came up and hit to second and is out. Soares went to third and En Sue to second. Akana binged to third and Soares tried to get home on the play, but was out. Franco was safe on hit to third, and En Sue and Akana came home on the play, Kusaka throwing to first. Sumner came up and sent one to left field, advancing Franco to second. Joy made a safe hit to right field and Franco completed the round trip on the hit. Joy out stealing second. Three outs. Three runs.

In the fourth the Keio team was determined to score, but failed after a hard effort, Miyake being caught at the home plate off Koyama's long hit to left field.

There was no more scoring throughout the remainder of the game, and the Keio scorecard contained nothing but "0's"—the first time it has been this way since their arrival in Honolulu.

The Keios tried for all they were worth to prevent the whitewash application, but to no purpose. They played good ball, but to score they could not.

It is for the Saints to boast of being able to knock Sugase, the crack Keio pitcher, out of the box for the first time. He had been slated to do wonders. Ishikawa, their third-class pitcher, was put in the box and held the Saints down.

The Keio boys took their defeat like

KEIO NINE WINS FROM STARS

It was a sad beating which the Stars received at the hands of the well-known Keio team on the Athletic Park diamond Saturday afternoon, the local team going under to the tune of 16-6.

The homesters, captained by Barney Joy, made the fans believe for a while that they were going to do great things during the game.

The Keios made two runs in their first inning, and the Stars came back in their half of the first and sent four men over the plate in short order.

The way they did it was a treat to see, as they knocked Ishikawa's deliveries all over the field. The bases were full, when Hoopli came to the plate and picked out a nice one which netted him a two-bagger, bringing the three men home—Kan Yen, Sumner and Ayleth. Hoopli came home later.

This was something of a surprise to the Honolulu fans, and it filled them with joy. Things looked gloomy for the Keios when it was found that the Fukuda, c-p, had scored four runs and Higo, if, had scored two.

Kusaka, 3b, had scored one. Sugase, p, had pitched well and was pitched out good, heady ball.

Neither side scored till the third spasm, when Sasaki added another run to the Keio total. The score stood 4-3.

Now things did not look so good to the home team, although they thought they could hold the varsity team down.

It was in the sixth inning when part of the sad story is told. Captain Kanki told his men that they had held off long enough and it was time to let one of the balloons go. Fukuda received orders to let the aerial affair off, and before the crowd knew where it landed, five men had crossed the plate. Fukuda came home first, followed by Sugase. The bases were full, and the Keios put up a neat squeeze play on two occasions, both of which worked well. Sugase, Kusaka, Sasaki and Kanki all scored. Total, 8-4 in favor of Keio.

The Star backers were very disappointed at the sudden downfall. Well, this did not end the exhibition on the visitors' part, for when they found out that Joy had changed pitchers and put in Hayes in Castle's place, it was good news to them, as they planned to give him a dose, also, before he was through pitching. Sure enough, the Nipponese were mean enough to rob six runs in the eighth inning, off Hayes and Miller.

Marcellino's Beauts were up in the air, and all the Keios had to do was to swat the ball to all corners of the field. The slaughter was dreadful, and some of the fans got a touch of homesickness, for before the ninth inning began, the seats in the grandstand were almost deserted. This time it was Miyake, Koyama, Takahama, Fukuda, Sugase and Kusaka who scored.

The Stars made two in their half of the eighth, and then the score stood 16-6, after a very poor exhibition by the Stars.

The crowd numbered about three thousand, and it looked as if the rest of the fans knew what was going to happen and avoided the entertainment.

HAWAII NINE PLAYS POOR BALL

It was a game full of errors put up by the Hawaii and Portuguese teams in the preliminary match to the Keios-Stars game Saturday afternoon.

The Hawaii team was completely out of form, and this lost them the game. The score of 6-9 indicates a good match, but such was not the case, as it was a ragged game right through.

Bushnell pitched for the Portuguese, and he struck out eight men. Elstina Andrews was his opponent for a while, but was soon taken out by Captain David Desha on account of the big lead the P. A. C. got off him.

Lotu, the regular pitcher, succeeded Andrews, and things then began to look different. He held the P. A. C. down pretty closely.

In the third inning Andrews was touched for four runs, and Souza, Elzer, Bushnell and Brito were the ones who made the round trip.

Rigo scored one more in the fourth, making the score 5-0. The Portuguese fans were delighted to see that big 5 on the scoreboard, while the Hawaii section was very lonesome.

Kuall made one run in the fourth for the Hawaii team and Lotu made the second run in the eighth inning.

It was in the ninth inning that things began to show up. The P. A. C. made one run and the Hawaiis began to hit Bushnell hard and started their bunting stunt, which brought three men home. This was all they could do, and the game ended in a win for the Portuguese team, 6-5.

David Desha played at second in place of Hamauku, who was absent, and put up a good game.

KEIO NINE WINS FROM STARS

The Stars won their game from the Hawaiis 7-5 after an interesting game.

G. Meyers, the Waianas wonder, was given a tryout by Captain Desha, and he lasted throughout the game, pitching fairly good ball. Hayes was his opponent, and he did well.

In the fourth inning of the Hawaii-P. A. C. game, Andrews stood for a while looking up at Bushnell's sky, which flew right above him, before he made up his mind to dive for it. By the time he had arrived at a conclusion, the ball was reposing quietly on the ground.

Both Umpires Mayne and Bower were caught asleep Saturday, when Lotu crossed about five yards off third base from second to home, where he landed safely. Souza got the ball and touched the sack, but it was useless.

It was amusing to the ball fans to see the heavyweights playing in the game Saturday on the star team. Hoopli, at right field, Aylett, at center field, and Joy, behind the bat, were the trio.

Kuall muffed a sky off Lino in the game Saturday, which landed right in his hands.
